CABERNET + SYRAH... IGNITE YOUR PALATE!

A Modern Napa Valley Cabernet

91 POINTS - EDITOR'S CHOICE

"Another very good Cabernet from Fuse, at a great price, following the 2007. Blended with Syrah and Merlot, it's rich and soft in blackberries and cassis, with a peppered, smoked meat note that must come from the Syrah. Best now."

GOOD VALUE

"12.5% Merlot; 12.5% Syrah. Nicely ripened fruit smelling of plum and currant with touches of spice and hints of leather and dried meat, this wine is nothing if not complex. That it is not quite as classic as fancy Cabernet Sauvignons ought to be does not take away from its overall depth and direct charms. It has the makings of a fine partner to seared meats served hot off the Weber"

"Ray Signorello was in town today and brought along some of his wines for an intimate tasting and luncheon held at the excellent Vertical Restaurant. Throughout a really good lunch and convivial conversation, the sharp looking and dressed Signorello revealed his 2008 'Fuse' Cabernet Sauvignon, in a brand new, slick and vibrant package. Grapes for 'Fuse' come from favourite Napa Valley growers, mostly Cabernet Sauvignon, but other Bordeaux grapes blended in it as well, plus Syrah. This red impresses me much. It has depth and serious structure, a wine with balance, composure and integrity. It certainly put a big smile over my face and brought back memories of a recent trip to sunny Napa, making me forget about the snow and wind that all of a sudden took over Toronto today. Licensees can get it for $34.95 and trust me when I say that you don't get better quality than this for a fairly low price. A perfect steak wine."
